Please read the full Terms and Conditions for more information on page 4 of the application form.

You will be required to always represent Torrens University Australia positively, as you are our chosen student brand Ambassadors, acting as leaders in and outside of the classroom.

Short Listed Applicants

The 10 Health scholarships will be awarded based on your passion and drive to create positive and lasting change. If you have the drive and passion to be one of our 2020 scholarship students, please carefully read and follow the instructions in page 3 and answer all the questions. These questions show us insight into your personality, career goals and will determine your scholarship eligibility.

We welcome creativity, and look forward to reading your submissions.

Our Commitment To You

Recognising your academic abilities, you will be rewarded with special inductions to Academic staff, create and run events on-campus, work with the Health Marketing and Event teams, and represent the University at exclusive industry events that will help grow your professional network.

You will be required to submit one content piece a month, which we will help edit and feature on our website, in blogs and print publications – where permitted. We also want to feature your study success stories as testimonials in our collateral. From this, you will receive industry relevant content which you can use in your career portfolio.

General

A total of ten (10) Health scholarships are on offer. Each scholarship offers a 20% reduction of tuition fees (applied per trimester). The offer and amount remain the same for all Torrens University Australia's course offerings across all campus locations, including online. The value of the Scholarships is subject to change dependent on the course fees for the year within which they are awarded. Course offering differs in each location and is subject to change. At the discretion of University Administration, Scholarships can and may be split and awarded as partial value or not awarded at all, depending on the overall quality of submissions.

By accepting the Scholarship award, the recipient(s) agrees to become a Health Ambassador for the duration of their studies and will be required to play an active role in college events such as day in the life events, masterclass evenings, open days and external career exhibitions.

The recipient(s) must also agree to take part in marketing activities, develop and provide creative content and testimonials as required.

Failure to carry out the duties of the Health Ambassador may result in the Scholarship award being terminated. All recipients are required to attend key recruitment events in their State/Territory. Failure to attend may result in the Scholarship award being terminated. The final award is subject to the winner(s) satisfying the course's entry requirements.

Only domestic students (including New Zealand) are eligible to apply. Visit the Torrens University Australia website for International Student Scholarships.

Scholarship award is only available to new students who have not been previously enrolled in a same level course at Torrens University Australia. Scholarship award only applies to full-time, on-campus and online study.

Should a Scholarship student intend to transition to part-time mode at any point during their studies, the University reserves the right to discontinue the award.

Deferral or withdrawal of studies will result in forfeit of the remainder of the Scholarship award (or the entire award if the studies have not yet commenced).

The Scholarship recipient is expected to excel academically, and their performance will be monitored each study period. A failure to meet academic obligations may result in forfeit of the Scholarship award. Subsequent fees for repeating a failed subject will be the responsibility of the student.
